The Flying Eaglet NUMISMATIC MAGAZINE

ON FEBRUARY 12, 1959 WE WILL BE HONORING ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S SESQUICENTENNIAL BIRTHDAY (150 YEARS) 1809 - 1959.

This new design will be a permanent one. The Philadelphia and Denver Mints have started production in January. A supply of the new coins will be distributed to the Federal Reserve Banks so that they may be released to the public for Lincoln's Birthday. The obverse will have the same design as before. This new design features the Lincoln Memorial built in 1922 as a tribute to the Great Emancipator.

Designed by Frank Gasparro
staff artist of the Phila. Mint.

New interest will be stirred in the coin hobby. A new type set will be formed. This is the first change of the cent in 50 years. Usually the last and first issues of a design are hoarded and have commanded premiums. The new design will be included in the proof sets for 1959.

In the center of the building sits a huge statue of Lincoln surrounded by doric columns of white marble. This beautiful building was presented to President Harding by Chief Justice Taft on behalf of the American people.

AD FORMS CLOSE THE 20th OF EACH MONTH.

Entered as second class matter October 13, 1956 at the post office of Newark, New Jersey under the act of March 3, 1879.

FROM YOUR EDITOR'S DESK —

New Rates, effective with our March issue, our subscriptions will be $3.00 per year U.S. and Canada, $5.50, 2 years. $7.50 3 years. Our rates have been the same for 4 years. But our circulation and expenses have increased considerably since then, plus the increase in postal rates 30% in Aug. 1958, another 30% in Jan. We plan to mail our March issue by envelope to help give better mail service and protect your copy from being soiled. Henceforth our readers will be receiving all their issues covered.

U. S. Currency can now be illustrated, the legislation was passed by the 85th Congress and approved by the President. Under the new law, printed illustrations of paper money, stamps, checks, bonds, obligations and securities of the U. S. and foreign governments are permissable for numismatic, educational, historical and newsworthy purposes.

These illustrations must conform with these standards: they must be in black and white, be of a size less than 3/4, or more than one and a half times the original size.

This law will be helping our hobby a great deal, as many rare and interesting currencies will be illustrated. The currency collector will have a field day. We hope to have many photos and articles on this subject of U. S. and Foreign currency in future issues.

The Happiness Exchange Radio Program has their ads on pages 12-13, with some worth while items. The night before New Years day, Big Joe, the director of this radio program invited your editor and Nick Salimbene, who is now one of our staff for our 4th interview and talk on numismatics on station WABC, N. Y. Working in the office I got the call at 7 P.M., with a little persuation we were on our way, via Lincoln Tunnel. Aside from a few road construction detours and a merry path of one way signs pointing to all directions we were at the ABC studio building within an hour. Once the talk and questions on coins got under way 2½ hrs. was gone before we knew it. In fact the last hr. was carried through to Jim Gordon's program, six phone lights were constantly on from calls of the listeners asking about coins. Jim, had to apologize a few times as time wouldn't permit answering all the calls. Many calls asked about the Coty, coins of the year club, coin values and many new subscriptions were received for our "Eaglet". At one point we did some swapping of coins and prices with "Big Joe". We left the building at 4 A.M. As we rode back to the Jersey side, our radio tuned in to the station, we could still hear Jim Gordon, telling the listeners no more calls could be accepted as we had left the studio. This proved to us there are thousands of people who can be interested in this hobby, if they are aware of it. The Happiness Exchange Program has many listeners near and far, as we received subscriptions from Indiana, Michigan, Canada, Florida, and the Eastern area.

The coin hobby for 1959—If the month of January is an indication for the rest of the year it will be another bigger boom year, for the coin hobby and the Flying Eaglet. January, 1959 represented our largest issue, 24 pages. A check of our daily new subscriptions received showed 187 new ones for the first 18 days. This breaks all previous records. Before the month is up all records will have been shattered. This will give us an average of about 350 new subscriptions per month or 4,000 for the year. This is very gratifying and appreciated. Our sincere thanks to all of you from us. Without a doubt 1959 should be the biggest year in the history of the numismatic hobby.

GRADING STANDARD

PROOF—Coin, a mirror-like finish, especially struck for collectors on polished metal blanks and struck by slower hydraulic press to obtain best feature lines.

UNCIRCULATED—made for general circulation has lustre but never reaches circulation. A Gem Unc. is unusually well struck, has lustre, no scratches, rubbings or mars.

EXTRA FINE & A. U.—about same. Coin is about uncirculated, slightly worn on high points and may have some mint lustre.

V. FINE—Has been circulated but all features and lettering are sharp.

FINE—Has all features and lettering but not sharp. Liberty is readable.

V. G.—Has border rims, most features and lines visible. Part of Liberty visible.

GOOD—All features and lines worn but visible.

FAIR—Considerably worn.

POOR—Considerably worn smooth, or corroded, good only as space filler.

This grading is used only as a guide to help you and is a general medium used by all dealers and collectors in the Numismatic field.

POINTS TO LOOK FOR ON SOME POPULAR COINS.

1 CENT LINCOLN: The lines on wheat stalk and Lincolns ear are a good spot to look for wear. On a coin classed as very good most lines should be showing, on a coin graded fine they should be clear

5 CENT LIBERTY: E Pluribus Unim is legible on coins graded good, clear on coins graded very good. One graded fine should have full liberty.

5 CENT BUFFALO: On a good coin edge of word Liberty may be slightly worn, but on one graded very good the word Liberty is clear and one-half of horn shows, a fine coin should have nearly a full horn, a coin classed as very fine has full horn and tail shows on hip.

10 CENT MERCURY: Watch lines on fasces, on coins classed very good some fasces lines show, a fine coin should have all lines.

FOR BEGINNERS who are just starting to collect, here are a few suggestions and some advice. First, a coin guide book is a must. They can be purchased for $1.00 or more for helpful information: on care, condition, value, amount minted, types, how coins are made, and other news of help and interest. Most coins can be found in circulation. As you are making your set always try to improve the worn coins. Value of coins depends greatly on the condition. Never clean or polish coins unless you are experienced. If you must try, use a common date coin. There are handy cleaning kits available for this purpose. Coin insert folders and other supplies can be obtained at your dealer. You may also notice that the age of old coins do not make them rare. There are some late date coins minted that are worth more than some hundreds of years old. What makes one coin worth more than another are by these factors: Amount of coins minted, availability, collectors demand and any unusual die strikes. Coins can be obtained through purchases, by auctions or trading with collectors. Mint sets can be bought by writing the Treasury Dept., U. S. Office of Treasury, Washington 25, D. C., at face value, plus postage and handling. To obtain Proof Sets of current year send $2.10 money order to Supt. Phila. Mint 16th and Spring Garden Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. You may order up to 100 sets per person. Commemorative half dollars are authorized periodically by Congress. These halves when issued are not sold by the mints. They are turned over to a Commission authorized by Congress at face value. The Commission then sells the halves at a premium.

NUMISMATIC QUESTION - ANSWER BOX

By C. Lynn Glaser

Q. What is the significance of the blue, green and red ink used for the seal and serial numbrs on paper money?—L.H.L., Grinnell, Iowa

A. At present 3 types of bills are in circulation with different types of backing. They are:

Silver certificates, (blue seal and serial numbers). These, in denominations of $1, $5, and $10, are issued by the United States Treasurer against standard silver dollars or silver bullion in the Treasury.

United States Notes, (red seal and serial numbers) these are issued in denominations of $2 and $5. Th amount outstanding is maintained at $346,618,016. A reserve of $156,039,430.93 in gold is held in the Treasury against these notes and Treasury notes of 1890.

Federal Reserve notes (green seal and serial numbers). These are issued and retired with the varying requirements of the country for currency. They appear in denominations of $5. $10, $20, $50, $100, $500, $1,000, and $10,000. Federal Reserve notes are obligations of the United States and are secured by deposit with Federal Reserve agents of a like amount of gold certificates in the U. S. Treasury.

Q. Why do some dollar bills have a gold seal? — G.R., Mt. Kisco, New York

A. United States silver certificates printed with the Treasury seal in yellow, rather than the usual blue were used in the initial stages of our military operations in North Africa and Sicily. The distinctive seal was adapted to facilitate isolation of the currency in event that military reverses caused any substantial amounts to fall into enemy hands. Denominations issued were $1, $5, and $10.

Q. Does the fact that only 1878 silver dollars have eight tail feathers, on the eagle, have any signficance? — J.H., N.Y.C.

A. When the eight feather tail design appeared the people who usually make it their business to criticize every new coin that came from the mint managed to stir up a great deal of ridicule against the mint early in 1878 because real eagles have an odd number of tail feathers. The seven tail feathers variety shows what action was taken by the engravers.

I think that the question which comes to me occasionally of what is the ideal numismatic library is actually an impossible question. However, I suggest that any money you spend on numismatic books is not spent in vain. I think the minimum numismatic library anyone can have is a current edition red book and a subscription to a Numismatic magazine.

The television show "You Asked For It" says "It's your requests that keep us on the go." It's your questions that keep me on the go, so if you have a question concerning numismatics write me at 240 E. 13th Avenue, Conshocken, Penna.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is $0.50, please send me three (3) Grading photo sheets. I have been a subscriber to your magazine since September and enjoy it very much. How about some articles of early mint issues.

—Robert Farmer, Milwaukee 4, Wis.

Dear Frank:

Please find my ad and check enclosed for a quarter page ad in the January issue of the "F.E". Had tremendous response in last ad and sold all but 7 coins. THANKS . . .

—George Russell Bassett, Pontiac, Mich.

CONRAD WEISER COIN CLUB

Recently some coin collectors formed a club here in our area. This club was formed through the efforts of John Shultz, Lewis Klein, Chas. Baum and Robert Fichthan who would trade coins while stopping and having a glass of beer at the end of the working day at my hotel. So far we have around 25 members and we meet the 2nd Wednesday of the month at Klein's Hotel.

The name of the club is the "Conrad Weiser Coin Club" named after an old settler who was a friend to the Indians and a scout in this area.

Officers of the club are John D. Shultz, Pres., Marvin Hartman, V. Pres.,

NEWARK COIN CLUB

The 28th meeting of the Newark Coin Club was held Tuesday evening, January 13th in the Assembly Room of the Newark Y.M.-Y.W.C.A. with 36 in attendance. The meeting opened at 8:15 P.M. and President James A. Brown presided. The President spoke on the importance of puting a percentage of money spent for coin collecting into books, literature and periodicals for complete versatility and knowledge of the subject of Numismatics and kindred subjects. The objective of the May, 1, 2, and 3rd. Metropolitan Convention was brought up and Phil Rosenbaum who is Publicity Chairman and Jack Nannery who is Registration Chairman spoke on the importance of supporting it all out. The club went on record to become part of this years Metropolitan Convention as a participating club. Philip Rosenbaum the organizer of the Staten Island Club extended an invitation to all present to attend the charter meeting of the Staten Island Club to be held Thursday, February 5th at the YMCA, West Brighten, N. Y. Y.M.C.A. and a good response is expected. NEW JERSEY NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

The 300th meeting of the N. J. Numismatic Society was held on Thursday Evening, January 8th, 1959 at the Military Park Hotel in the Hunting Room. There were 22 present and President Herbert Oechsner presided. The president recommended that a membership committee and program committee be planed to stimulate interest in joining the group and more local people are to be desired for it is difficult in todays traffic for some to come long distances. Frank Liveright came to this meeting tonight, he is our only Honorary Life Member. He is the one who gave that marvelous collection to the Newark Museum 30 years ago and it is worth a fabulous fortune at todays prices. The designation for the evenings H. Countries was well received and several exhibits covered practically the whole field between them. Our Honored Guest, Herr Doktor, Hans Schulman accompanied by his charming and beautiful wife and expert numismatist in her own right, Hans was the speaker of the evening on, "Numismatic Experiences." He was informal and spoke about how the items he brought were used as barter, trade and later on commerce, industry and banking. War, migration and religion all left their marks and reminder on the coins left to us from the past. The stories he told were interesting historically and even facinating. There was then viewing of exhibits with explainations by the owners. Tonight there were a number of exceptionally wonderful displays. A certificate of Merit from the Flying Eaglet was presented to Willard Blaisdell for the best all around exhibit of the evening. His exhibit, was, "Early Notes", in comprehensive order and embracing a period of history when the Nation was young. There were several old timers present and interesting times and reminiscences were recalled by them.

The GARFIELD STAMP and COIN CLUB held its 5th meeting on Jan. 9, 1959 at 100 Somerset St., Garfield, N. J.

There was a turnout of thirty including two youths of ages 13 - 16.

Pierre Cariou brought in a Match & Mount Kit, showing a map of the world and coins from various countries to be mounted, very interesting and educational for beginners and advanced collectors as well.

J. Massaro had on display a shortshort-snorter about 50 feet long and representing banknotes from 20 countries. There were popular during World War II. They consisted of banknotes with signatures of friends and as a person gathered more friends, more banknotes were added. This particular one was ten years in the making.

An auction was held, coins and stamps were bid upon. A good time was had by all. Special thanks go to Nick Salimbene for a job well done as auctioneer.

Meeting of this club are held on 2nd Friday of every month. All persons interested in coins and stamps are welcome, including high school students.

HOW THE RARE SIX PENCE WAS FOUND

Mr. L. S. Dee of London arrived at the Philadelphia airport with his world-famous collection of rare British coins. The collection is to be shown at various centers throughout the United States during the remainder of this year. Among the rare items in this collection is "Simple Simon's penny", Jack's Crown, the Ten O'Clock scholar's dollar, and six big silver pennies. "The six pennies mentioned in Sing a Song of Six-pence", announced Mr. Dee proudly. "I spent years of my life looking for a six-pence which didn't exist. Perhaps you'd like to hear the story", he said.

THE NUMISMATIST'S TALE.

About three years ago my wife and I were taking a holiday in the Cotswolds, and one night we put up at an inn called The Bird in Pie. On examining the inn sign I could make out a pie-dish with crust cut and a number of black birds pushing their heads up out of the pie. On our pre-breakfast stroll we came to a hollow and were walking along a field-path beside some standng rye, when my wife suddenly exclaimed, "Its a pocket full of rye". At that moment everything came together in my head — the blackbird pie, the royal visitor, the pocket full of rye. Our inn, I realized in a flash, must be the very place referred to in SING A SONG OF SIXPENCE. Over breakfast we tackled our host. He at once admitted the identification and said he had supposed everyone knew about it. KING HENRY VIII had been caught in a storm and had taken refuge at the inn. The inn-keeper had served the king a huge blackbird pie, which had steamed and sizzled when it was cut open. The King had then stayed the night. The King complained that the door of his room had rattled all night and he goodhumoredly gave the inn-keeper a sixpence to have it mended."But", I said, "the door still rattles". Our host walked over to the corner of the parlor and came back with a small circular object about one inch high and flat at both ends. I saw that it was made of silver disks. Seizing a knife, I pried the disks apart and the six pennies you now see in the case lay on the able before me. I then guessed what happened. The original innkeeper wished to preserve the royal coins as a memento, but he also wished to obey the King's command to stop the door from rattling. So he fixed the pennies together to be used as a wedge to hold the door firm. He told no one as he did not want the pennies stolen, and so the secret died with him. That was how things remained down through the years until a casual visitor to the inn, a coin collector, stumbled on the secret.

Dear Sir;

I have been reading "Readers Rare Find" and thought you would like to know I started my coin collection in August and within three weeks I found 2-1909-SVDB in real good shape Both Coins had very sharp and clear wheat marks. Since then I have found a very good 1914-D.

Thanks for a fine magazine.

FIRST MINT ERROR

Your editor got his first look at the new 1959 cent Jan. 18, Mr. Vincent Pisciotti, of Nannet, N. Y. got a roll of the new cents and brought them to my office. One piece had the obverse almost completely smooth with a sharp reverse. Many collectors will be looking for flaws. Who will be the first to find a silver cent of 1959? If your lucky, it will be worth about $100.

Dear Sirs;

Enclosed is 50c for three grading sheets.

My Daddy and I have been collecting for about a year. Our finds together are two 1909-SVDB, (2) 1909-S, (4) 1914-D, (4) 1924-D, (3) 1931-S, and about (150) 1939-D Lincoln pennies. We have completed 2 sets and are going on 3 and 4.

We also have found a 1957-D Lincoln goatee, (150) 1957-D cracked skulls, and a blank Lincoln and Jefferson Nickle.

We enjoy your magazine very much.

Dear Sirs;

In going through 7 sacks of pennies I came across a 1951-D Cent, thin as tin in A.U. condition but can find nothing on a coin of this date in any of the coin books, do you have any information on this.

Inclosed is my check for three Dollars will you send me 20 of the Grading Sheets as would like to give them to our club members.

We really like the Flying Eaglet. . . Keep up the good work.

—Harry G. Cherry

Dear Sir;

I recently found a 1913-P Type II Buffalo Nickel, which appears to have been struck twice when it was minted. The obverse side of the coin has two heads. Holding the coin in a normal position where the date is at the bottom of the coin, you can see that a small part of the upper half of the 1 and 3 of the 13 has been cut away by the over-strike. The Liberty is very badly blotted, apparently from the over-strike. Holding the coin in a position, where the Indian is lookin away and directly in front of you, it is possible to see the other Indian Head with the 1913 date, but from this position the Liberty is not visible.

The reverse side of the coin has only the one Buffalo, with almost a full horn. There is a pretty deep groove cut in the reverse side of the coin, apparently due to the over-strike. The groove starts at the lower edge of the coin and curves through the "F" of the five, across the face and the shoulders, through the last "S" in States, and through the "O" and "F" in of, and ending at the edge of the coin just above the word America.

Is this just another freak coin? Is there any record of anyone having found a coin a coin such as this? Is there any value that can be placed on a coin such as this one.

Dear Sir;

Inclosed find .50c please send 3-11 x 17 Grading photo sheets of U.S. Type Coins.

P.S. Please recommend the best book you know of for currency and also for foreign coins. I have quite a few extra coins beside what I have in whitman folders, what is the best way to keep these and also to have them so I can find them in an orderly way.

Thanks —J. Murphy

Dear Sir;

We would like the sample magazine as advertised in the Popular Mechanics Magazine. Also would like to subscribe for a year. We are stationed in Izmir, Turkey and often run across old Roman, Greek and Byzantine coins. Do you happen to have any books or pamphlets on these coins?

Editor's Note: One of our readers may be of help.

MINT ERROR COLLECTOR

Subject: The Fabricated Error

At this time it behooves us to write a small article on the man made error which is a fabrication or in other words, not a mint product.

Some of the most misunderstood phonies in the mint error field occur when metal advertising cards such as the round types, horseshoe, etc. types inscribed "keep me and you will never be broke" names of coin dealers, etc. with cents inserted are manufactured. The impact of the press sometimes forces the coin into a smaller circumference thus creating buckled and phony "small-planchet cents". This creates a real puzzler to the novice who is unaware of the process and is often accepted by him as being struck as a small planchet error. Sometimes when the cent becomes loose and while being struck off center, enough to receive the impact of the metal token design, as a result part of the advertising is on the Lincoln Cent such as clover leafs, good luck, etc. and in the past has been offered for sale erroneously as Lincoln Cents struck off center on foreign planchets.

The second type which appears on the market, not only in the cent but also in any other denomination that exists, is the so-called undersized thin type. One can easily detect this since this really is fabricated more or less to defraud. The chemical used does eat away the metal in thickness and circumference but not as rapidly on the compressed features of the design which after a lengthy bath appears struck on a thin planchet but the features are still relatively sharp. A true so-called thin cent which is struck at the Mint accidently on one half of a planchet which was faulty metal that probably was not annealed properly. The features or design in this case is always weak struck.

Since there have been rapid strides in the growth of mint error collecting in recent years we sincerely hope that this important information helps to enlighten and educate to some extent, the collector of mint errors as well as the collector of other types of numismatic material.

MICHAEL KOLMAN, Jr., C.O.M.E. No. 1

The HOW —

Big Joe's Happiness Exchange is a radio program on WABC, 770 on the dial, at midnight seven nights a week. Big Joe asks his listeners to send in any coins they have to help those in need. For two years they have been sending them in.

The WHY —

So many duplicates. So many conditions it is necessary to dispose of them in order to raise money to complete sets and have funds to invest in rare and scarce dates. The only way to get the money is to sell the coins listed below.

The usual mail auction conditions prevail. Gradings are very conservative, and any transaction MUST be to PURCHASER'S satisfaction.

Please remember WE ARE NOT A DEALER— CLOSING DATE FOR BIDS MARCH 1st, 1959

EVEN THOUGH WE GOT THESE COINS F R E E The money raised through the sale of them is used for CHARITABLE purposes. Kindly consider this in making your bids.

Don't Cater to Depression

An interesting story was recently related about a blind and deaf man. Not being able to see or hear he had no need of a radio or newspaper.

He had a sign made, saying how good his hot dogs were and was doing very good. He increased his orders for more meat and buns.

One day he decided to have his son home from college. Then something happened. His son said "Father" don't you know there's a depression on, the international situation is bad, the domestic is worse!

The father thought, well my son has been to college, listens to the radio and reads the newspaper. So he must know. Down went his meat and bun orders, finally down went his sign. You're right son! We are in a big depression.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN — HANNIBAL HAMLIN

These rare photo vignettes are of brass, the size of a quarter and dated 1860. A rare photo of a young shaven Lincoln, campaigning for the Presidency. Plus many other honors received the nation will be honoring Lincoln's 150th year February 12, 1959. (1809-1959)

The proud ower of these vignettes is Arthur Spidel of Brewster, Oho.

Dear Sir:

Will you be kind enough to give me a little information about the 1955 "Bugs Bunny" Half Dollars. I notice that they are advertised in "The Flying Eaglet".

I would like to know the difference between the Bugs Bunny and the regular half dollar. Also the best way to tell them apart.

—Lon R. Bransford
Louisville 14, Ky.

Definition of "poise": The ability to go on talking while the other fellow picks up the check.

THE BUGS BUNNY HALF

Enclosed is a rough outline of how the mouth looks on a Bugs Bunny half. Instead of the lips being horizontal - on this die break there are no lips, but small lines vertical resembling teeth.

ANOTHER 1936 DOT VARIETY

Dear Sir:

I am enclosing a photo of a coin which I found. It's a 1936 Canadian Cent Die Variety.

If you'll check the photo you will notice a Dot close to the 9.

I've been collecting coins for a long time, and this is as close as I ever came to a Dot cent.

—Nick Serniah
CNA 1920, Alberta, Canada

Fat lady: Little boy, why are you looking at me?

Tommy: Because there isn't any other way to look without turning around.

Several months ago the coat of arms of Canada was simplified. To conform with this change, it has been officially announced that the reverse of the 1959- 50-cent piece will be altered accordingly. The obverse will remain unchanged.

Paper Money Round Up

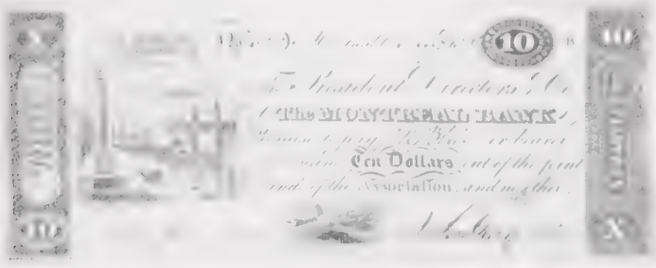
REMARKABLE BANK ILLUSTRATIONS DEPICT RARE CANADIAN CURRENCY

By Harold Don Allen

Canada has fourteen banks for fifteen million Canadians — yet her remarkable branch banking system brings complete banking facilities to over 4,600 locations across the nation, giving Canada more banks per capita than any other nation. She has one money, the drab legal tender currency of her central bank, the Bank of Canada, but her paper money traditions are as colourful as those of any lands with close to 100 banks of issue in sixteen decades releasing some of the most attractive of contemporary bank note art, and evolving a Canadian "dollar" of world repute.

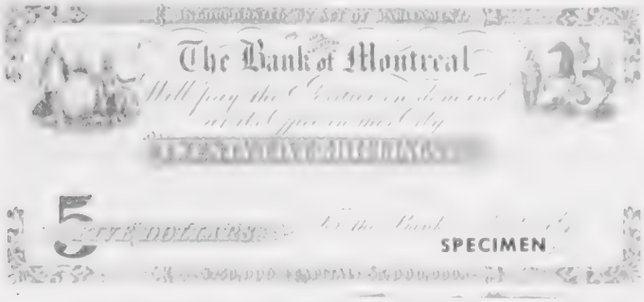
Canadian government and bank currencies, from the viewpoint of the would-be collector, balance slight supply against meagre demand, coming up with a surplus for those who might want to study and collect the more common currency types. But even two or three years have shown a sharp shift in the market. Notes that would have been neglected as commonplace a decade ago rarely if ever make their appearance today. And collecting interest is rising, with truly choice material setting new records whenever offered for sale. Yet the situation has not yet reached the point where an interesting collection of representative bank currencies and late government issues cannot be picked up, in quite passable conditon, at a nominal advance over face. Literature is sparse and widely scattered, with twentieth century issues you cannot go far wrong. All are redeemable at face.

The accompanying illustrations of a number of particularly interesting specimens of Canadian paper currency include material never before depicted in a numismatic periodical. The notes are from the collection of C. C. Tannahill, Regina Coin Club president, and are reproduced from the October, 1958 Bank of Montreal Staff Magazine, with the generous co-operation of Canada's senior bank:



RARE FIRST SERIES OF THE MONTREAL BANK

This extremely rare $10 note bears the penned date of issue, 1st January, 1818, and is of the first series released by the Bank of Montreal, when it was still known as the Montreal Bank. Note the illustration of ten coins. The vignette depicts a monument to Admiral Nelson, to this day a landmark in downtown Montreal.

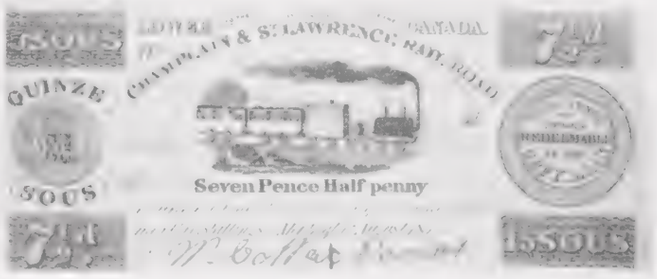


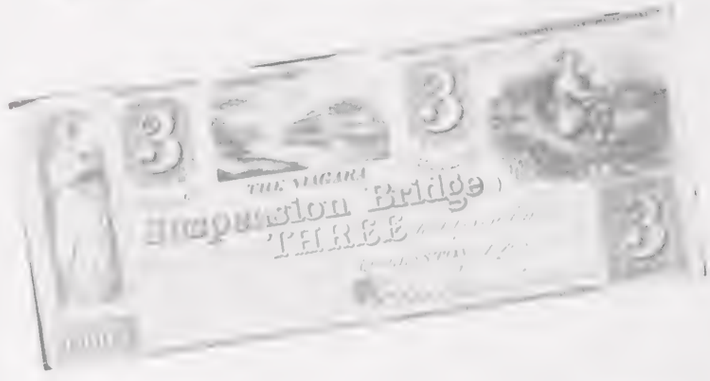
INTERESTING DECIMAL CURRENCY

"Twenty-five Shillings": one of the last times such an inscription appeared on a Canadian note; 1858, the date of issue, was the year that the Province of Canada adopted decimal currency, and gave the "dollars" which had been appearing on currency for decades the sanction of the law of the land. The dollar tradition stems from the common circulation of the Spanish Milled Dollar in the colonies which became Canada, though the process of decimal-conversion no doubt was hastened by proximity to business practices of the United States.

The vintage is unmistakable, yet what collector possesses a negotiable note of this date? January 1, 1849, denominated in dollars and in Sterling, and made out to a payee whose name is entered in ink. Only very infrequently do such prizes come on the numismatic market today.

The fine lathework and distinguished artistry make it hard to understand why Canadian broken bank currencies have been so neglected for so long. Of special interest are the many fine railroad vignettes to be found on currency of this time.





7½ PENNIES, $3. BILL, $4. BILL - (20 SHILLINGS)

Three examples of earlier engraving styles, these remarkable items from the first half of the nineteenth century. The Champlain & St. Lawrence Rail Road notes occasionally come on the market in complete sheets. The Accommodation Bank died in the planning stage, never getting to circulate notes or open its doors. The Suspension Bridge institution was at Clifton, now Niagara Falls.

AN UNCUT SHEET OF $1., $3., and $5. NOTES

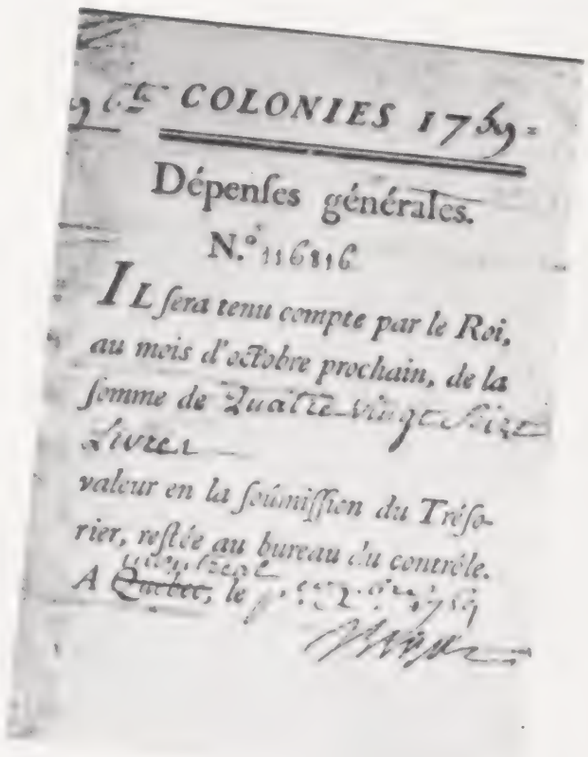
Outside the field of negotiable currencies, many interesting Canadian items persist. Broken bank bills are in short supply, but slight demand keeps prices to a few dollars on many pleasing types. This complete sheet, however, is unusual. The Zimmerman Bank opened and failed in the 1850's, a period from which many broken bills date.

POPULAR $4. BILL OF CANADA

In the United States the $3 note once was far more common than the $4, amid the complex diversity of local banks. In Canada, the $1, $2 and $4 were the tradition, and this style note saw service as recently as 1912. It was a government issue, legal tender and backed by gold. Vice-regal portraiture was common on government currency. The note, while not rare, is much in demand, and an average circulated specimen would bring $25 at least.

A remarkable rarity — and still negotiable — a $3 bill of a small bank which is no more. Issued in St. Stephen, New Brunswick, in 1886, the bill portrays Queen Victoria as a young woman. Canada had many such small-town banks at one time, but all vanished in Failure or in merger with stronger competitors. The Bank of Canada will redeem this note . . . yet who would dream of cashing it in! Numismatic price tag might be $100 or more.

A recent rarity, the last issue of an old and honourable bank. The date is 1922, shortly before the Molsons Bank merged with the Bank of Montreal, but the note, in this splendid condition, would bring a good price. Fifty dollars is the figure several dealers quote.



WHEN CANADA WAS A FRENCH COLONIE

A museum piece, this note issued by French authorities just prior to the fall of New France. "Quebec" is crossed out, and "Montreal" entered by hand, suggesting that the note was circulated after Wolfe had captured Quebec. The denomination, handwritten, is "Quatre-Vingt-Seize Livres", 96 Livres, and the design recalls U. S. Colonial notes of about the same time.

JUST ONE MAN'S OPINION

The Carson City Dollars are the most underpriced series of all coins minted.
All one has to do is check the number minted of each year and you will see that there will never be enough to supply our five (5) million or more (est.) collectors.
Take the 1885 with only 228,000 minted. This would be one for about every twenty-one collectors.
Second comes the 1881 with only 296,000 and so on.
I have a few sets of the 1880 through 1885 complete in Strictly Brilliant Uncirculated.

For set of six (6) $21.95

Below are my prices for single coins . . . all Brilliant Uncirculated.

1878-CC Proof Surface	$ 6.00	1882-CC Brill. Unc.	4.00	1890-CC Proof Surface	6.00
1879-CC Proof Surface	20.00	1883-CC Brill. Unc.	4.00	1890-CC Brill. Unc.	4.50
1880-CC Brill. Unc.	6.00	1884-CC Brill. Unc.	4.00	1891-CC Brill. Unc.	4.50
1881-CC Brill. Unc.	5.00	1885-CC Brill. Unc.	$ 5.00	1892-CC Brill. Unc.	5.50
1882-CC Proof Surface	5.50	1885-CC Proof Surface	7.00

Please keep in mind that I guarantee every dollar I sell to be Strictly Brilliant Uncirculated.
Money back guarantee plus return postage if not pleased.

My second offering for this month is, in my opinion, a small set with a future.
The War Time Silver Nickel consisting of 11 coins minted 1942 to 1945. (see Red Book).
This set in Brilliant Uncirculated is beautiful and also underpriced in this booming coin market.

My price for the complete set is . . $5.50

Only until present stock is sold.

The 1943-D is of course in this set and this is one that I compare in value to the 1942-D which is selling today for $4.50 each.
